Flu vaccinations will be mandatory for all horses/ponies. The horse must have received 2 injections for primary vaccination against equine influenza prior to competing at British Showjumping competitions. Subsequent booster injections must be given at intervals of not more than 1 year apart.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

- Identification sketches, microchip and vaccination records MUST be provided - photocopies will be accepted.
- Sketches must show a minimum of five distinguishing features, including any brand marks, with matching written description and must be completed, signed and stamped by a regulating authority.
- Breeding will be recorded on production of papers showing VERIFIED breeding - Breed papers are mandatory for age classes.
- STALLIONS will ONLY be accepted for registration on production of approved stud book papers showing confirmed breeding on both sides. Stallions may not be jumped on a ticket and must wear stallion discs and tail ribbons (red, white and blue) at competitions at all times.
- Stallion ribbons and discs can be purchased via your member's online account. A surcharge will be applied to ungraded stallions, Refer to rule 41.4.
- All documents will be over stamped by British Showjumping and returned.
